

The Duke of Edinburgh's Gold Business Award

Go the extra mile; gain new skills, push yourself physically, help others and explore new places. Gain friendships, experiences and memories that will last a lifetime - and have lots of fun too!

The award is run over an 18-month period and there are five modules and an awards presentation included. Visit amey.co.uk/dofe for more information.

Residential 6 - 10 Sept 2021

- Meet your new team
- Introduction to DofE
- Outdoor teambuilding exercises
- Expedition Training
- Learn eDofE (online platform)
- Understand the modules
- Fun, engaging activities.

Business Skills 6 months

- 1 hour a week or 4 hours a month
- Increase and develop your essential skills
- Complete your self assessment against the essential skills at the Residential
- People Manager to arrange tasks/ activities (in line with your job role) to help develop those skills

Volunteering 12 months

- 1 hour a week or 4 hours a month
- Support a charity for the year – Amey's Employee Chosen Charity, the clients chosen charity or a charity close to your heart!
- Create your annual fundraising / volunteering calendar!
- 12-month goal – to be set at the Residential.

Physical 18 months

- 1 hour a week or 4 hours a month
- Choose a physical activity or sport you already do
- Learn a new team, individual or extreme sport and challenge yourself
- Increase your fitness levels to get yourself ready for the Expedition
- 18-month goal – set yourself a personal goal.

Practice Expedition 6 - 10 June 2022 Expedition 25 - 29 July 2022

- Self-sufficient activity in wild country
- Your map skills will be tested!
- Experiences you will never forget!
- The Expedition is what you're working towards.

Gold Award Presentation date tbc

- You'll be presented with your Gold Award by a member of the Royal Family at one of the Royal Palaces in London or Edinburgh
- A way to celebrate your fantastic achievement
- Attended by senior members of Amey and celebrities.